

First Time Home Owners' Seminar

The single largest purchase by most is fixed residential property. For first home owners the property market is a complex environment and is a coming together of various stakeholders including real estate agents, property valuers, banks and attorneys. The property world has its own vocabulary and the purchase of property comes with a long list of costs. Those who are planning to make a property purchase for the first time, or seasoned buyers who wish to refresh their knowledge of the property environment will benefit from this seminar.

Structure

This programme will be delivered over 1 day.

Who should attend?

- First time home owners
- Seasoned residential property investors

Upon completion of the programme, delegates should be able to:

- Understand the relevant terminology.
- Understand the roles of the various professionals.
- Comprehend the full suite of costs involved in a property purchase transaction.
- Comprehend the residential property transaction process.

