

Property Investors' Seminar

Property investments form the cornerstone of private or professional investment portfolios. The approach to real estate investment may range from an individual property purchase to an investment in a property syndicate or a listed property company. These choices each have their singular advantages, disadvantages and nuances.

Structure

This programme will be delivered over 1 day.

Who should attend?

- Property investors
- Estate agents
- Investment advisors
- Prospective property buyers

Upon completion of the programme, delegates should be able to:

- Make sound property investment choices.
- Apply knowledge and skills to navigate the property investment world.
- Deal with builders, conveyancers, auctioneers and bankers.

