

Unleashing Your Potential - Moving from Information to Transformation

Companies grow when individuals within the company grow. One of the fatal mistakes in companies and institutions is that not enough is invested in the growth of the employees. This programme looks at factors that inhibit growth. It also looks at the psychological barriers to success and focuses on the creative potential of each individual.

Structure

This programme will be delivered over 3 days. Delegates will receive a certificate of attendance upon completion of the programme.

Who should attend?

- All those who want to see their companies and institutions grow
- The programme supports the organisation from top management to lower level roles
- The entire learning team will benefit from the tools, skills, ideas, strategies and best practices shared in the programme

Upon completion of the programme, delegates should be able to:

- Embrace change.
- Encourage creativity and excellence in the workplace.
- Breakdown psychological barriers to success.
- Develop a personal vision and mission.
- Unleash their true potential.
